

Navigate fields with the tab key. Mac users completing this form with Preview should use the Text tool, and can use option-return to start a new line within a text block. Save the completed PDF file to your computer and either print it out to return via mail; or attach the saved file to an email addressed to NMSAcademy@colum.edu

New Millennium Studies: The First-Year Seminar
Teaching Academy
Self-Nomination Form

Name:

Department:

Status:

Full-Time Faculty

Part-Time Faculty

Staff

Other

(specify: _____)

Year you began teaching at Columbia:

Email:

Phone:

Please list two references (preferably at Columbia College) who can speak to your abilities as a teacher.

May we contact your department chairperson, program director, and/or program coordinator? (If so, please provide name[s] and contact information.)

Please discuss and describe one or two successful experiences you have had teaching undergraduates (and in particular first-year students).

Why are you interested in teaching New Millennium Studies?

What do you hope to get from the New Millennium Studies Teaching Academy?
What will you contribute?

During the spring 2008 semester, new Fellows of the Teaching Academy will meet three or four times in a small group (dates and times to be decided by the members of the small group), and twice with the full Teaching Academy, on Wednesday, January 30 from 5:00–7:30pm and Tuesday, April 22 from 5:00–7:30pm.

In addition, there will be a required two-day retreat on August 14–15, 2008. Will you be available to attend these meetings?

→ Please include a current c.v. with this form.

→ Materials may be emailed to <NMSAcademy@colum.edu> or delivered to:

New Millennium Studies: The First-Year Seminar
600 S. Michigan Ave., Suite 201
Chicago, IL 60605

Columbia

COLLEGE CHICAGO