OF EDITORIAL CARTOONING

Eligibility

Any staff, syndicated or regularly published professional cartoonist.

Entries

Any cartoons, single panel or multiple, commenting on current social, cultural, and political subjects (including sports and entertainment). To be eligible, the work must have been published Jan. 1, 2011 - Dec. 31, 2011 in a daily or weekly newspaper or regularly published periodical (including Internet publications) in the United States.

Entries must be accompanied by a $50 entry fee, paid via check or credit card. Checks should be payable to Columbia College Chicago. Please reference Fischetti Editorial Cartoon Competition on the memo line.

Payments made by credit card (American Express, Visa, MasterCard & Discover) should be phoned in to 312-369-8988.

Please indicate your payment method when submitting electronically.

Rules

- An individual may submit up to three cartoons published during 2011. All entries must be submitted together. The $50 fee covers all three entries.
- Entries must be postmarked or submitted electronically by Jan. 31, 2012.
- Date and place of first publication should accompany all submitted cartoons.
- Original drawings must be available for submitted cartoons to qualify.

Entry Information

All entries become property of the Fischetti competition committee of Columbia College Chicago. Grand prize winners will be required to contribute the original of their entries for auction to benefit scholarships through the John Fischetti endowment. Submission of an entry gives Columbia College permission to reproduce a cartoon in connection with the contest or Fischetti endowment publicity.
