

Wealth New+Wealth Virtual Symposium

Please join us as we hold live and virtual conversations around the the topic of WEALTH AND NEW WEALTH. This is a revival of our CRITICAL ENCOUNTERS: POVERTY&PRIVILEGE conversations started in 2007/08. This also marks the continuation of our relationship with the DUBLIN INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY.

Topics include: the new world order, art and activism, hip-hop wealth, higher education in the US and in Ireland, neoliberalism, migration, fashion, love, LGBT families, the independent music sector, and more.

Come to the live presentations (see below) with your classes, by yourselves, or participate in the other conversations online from your desks or from your comfy chairs (www.colum.edu/virtualsymposium).

It should be a "wealthy" set of interactions!
Stephanie Shonekan

LIVE PRESENTATIONS! WEALTH AND NEW WEALTH
(other events online at www.colum.edu/virtualsymposium)

[WEDNESDAY, April 22]
Collins Hall, 6th floor, 624 S. Michigan

9:30-10:30am The Black Atlantic
George Bailey; Drummers, Carl Spight and John Williams; Dancer, Vickie Casanova

10:45-12:00pm Gift(ed): Commonwealth, Gifting, and the Emergence of New Economy(s)
Kevin Henry and Ralph Delos Reyes

6:30-8:00pm New Wealth, New Definitions – Images and Ideas of Love and Home, Near and Far
Andrew Causey, Louis Silverstein, and Anaele Adis Iroh

[THURSDAY, April 23]
Collins Hall, 6th floor, 624 S. Michigan

11:00am-12:00pm

'Wealth, new wealth and the new world order: Journalistic perspectives on Ireland's position in global capitalism'

Panel/video stream/blog.

Michael Foley (convenor) (Dept of Journalism and Communications, Dublin Institute of Technology)

Sponsors: the Office of International Programs, Critical Encounters, + the Dublin Institute of Technology