

Columbia College Chicago
SECURITY ALERT!

September 29th, 2010

Incident: Robbery
Date: September 29th at 3:45 am
Location: Corner of State and Polk Street by the CTA Red Line Station

The Office of Campus Safety & Security has been advised of an incident of Robbery that occurred at the corner of Polk and State Street by the CTA Red Line Station at 3:45 am this morning, September 29th. The victim was approached by four individuals, one of which was carrying a bat, and was asked what he had in his wallet. When the victim responded that he had nothing, he was beaten with the bat and kicked. Following is a description of the offenders provided by the victim.

- African American Males
- Approximately 18- 20 years of age
- Approximately 5'6"-5'9 in height.

Precautionary Measures

- Avoid traveling alone while navigating city streets.
- Maintain a state of awareness and surroundings at all times.
- Avoid wearing head phones or talking on the cell phone while traveling.
- Report suspicious behavior to Chicago Police at 911 or Security at (312) 369-1111.