

Liberal Arts and Sciences Core Curriculum

Area	Credit Hours (42 Total)
Foundations of Communication: Knowledge and Practices	12
First Year Seminar: New Millennium Studies	3
Writing and Rhetoric I and II	6
Oral Communication	3
Culture, Values and Ethics	15
Social Sciences	6
Humanities	6
Literature	3
Historical Narratives and Civic Consciousness	6
The Physical and Material World	9
Mathematics	3
Science	3
Science with lab component	3

Notes:

1. The Core Requirement for students graduating with a BFA is 36 hours; for these students there is no Oral Communication requirement and the Culture, Values and Ethics requirement is 12 credits.
2. The requirement for the New Millennium Studies class will be phased in beginning Fall 2005
3. Students also satisfy requirements in American Pluralism and Global Awareness and can do so in any of the above courses labeled such.
4. Six hours must be at the 2000 level or above (which may be the same as 200 level courses at other institutions.)