BLACK PAGES

A STUDENT RESOURCE GUIDE

11 - 12

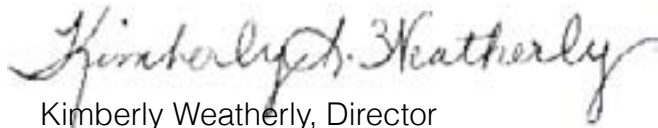

Compiled by African-American Cultural Affairs • 618 South Michigan Avenue/4th floor • 312 369 7569

Dear Columbia College Chicago Students,

The Black Pages Student Resource Guide was designed for students of African-American descent or for students who are interested in resources and services frequented by African-Americans. If you are new to the area, the Black Pages Student Resource Guide can help orient you to the great city of Chicago and assist you in making a smooth transition to both the city and campus living.

We invite and encourage you to browse and use this booklet to best serve your needs. You can also make suggestions for new businesses to be added to this Student Resource Guide by visiting the African-American Cultural Affairs in the 618 South Michigan Avenue/4th floor. Pick up an extra copy of this booklet for a friend, and learn about the many other services available in Multicultural Affairs.

Best wishes for a great semester,

Kimberly Weatherly, Director
African-American Cultural Affairs
