

Degree: Associate of Applied Science

Degree: Bachelor of Fine Arts

Major: Graphic Design - Print

Major: Graphic Design

Credits completed at Oakton: 69*

Credits at Columbia College Chicago: 59

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Graphic Design encourages a foundation of design research, forming a basis for visual creation with significant emphasis on creating unique concepts, creative solutions, and outcomes that are client specific. In addition to creating strong visuals, graphic designers create meaning and emotional responses in messages that influence choices we make in our daily lives. Learn more at colum.edu/academics.

Alumni Success

- Eavan Wallner '14 is a visual designer at Google. After spending four years at Leo Burnett, where she designed for clients such as Allstate, Samsung, and Kraft, Wallner moved to San Francisco to join the design team at Google.
- Jared Sawdey '17, formerly of Cards Against Humanity and Uptake, is a designer at Compass. In his free time, he runs the Chicago-based print cooperative Bad Press.
- Crystal Zapata '16 is a designer and artist at the Normal Studio in Chicago. Her Italian-design-inspired posters for Bricktown Sound, a bi-weekly dance party, have become recognizable in the city.
- Erick Morales '17 is a junior designer at One Design Company, an award-winning strategic design and development agency.

In order to be considered for admission to the Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA), all applicants following this guide are required to earn a 3.0 in all major courses. Additionally, please note all applicants will be processed as Bachelor of Arts (BA) students until confirmation of enrollment. Contact transfer@colum.edu with any questions.

Students who complete the AAS would be waived from the following major requirements: ARTH 105 Introduction to Visual Culture, DSGN 110 Design Thinking, GRDE 136 Design Lab, and 3 hours of Foundation Skills.

Columbia College Chicago participates in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI). Students who complete the AAS degree prior to transferring to Columbia College Chicago have the choice of completing the IAI General Education Core Curriculum (GECC) at Columbia or the Columbia Core Curriculum. Students will work with their Columbia advisor on the best course of action. Additionally, all degree-seeking Columbia students are required to complete 9 credit hours of 200-level (or higher) coursework, Columbia Experience courses as indicated, as well as at least two courses (6 credit hours) with a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) designation to meet graduation requirements.
