The Fiction program is structured around the nationally acclaimed Story Workshop® method of teaching writing, originated and developed by the department’s former chairperson, John Schultz. The Story Workshop courses teach the writing of fiction and creative nonfiction. The department also offers a variety of critical reading and writing classes, as well as elective specialty writing courses such as science fiction, writing for children, creative nonfiction, playwriting, tutoring/teaching, and publishing on a level and scope unequaled in undergraduate programs. Internships, Independent Study, and Selected Topics courses are not transferable to Columbia College Chicago.

Columbia College Chicago participates in the Illinois Articulation Initiative (IAI). Students who complete the AA and transfer to Columbia College Chicago will be eligible for the IAI General Education Core. Full-time status at Columbia College Chicago is 12-16 credits per term. All degree-seeking undergraduate students are required to complete Global Awareness (3 credits), U.S. Pluralism (3 credits), Writing Intensive (3 credits), and upper division (2000 level or higher) LAS core courses (6 credits). This plan assumes completion of Global Awareness, U.S. Pluralism, and 2000-level LAS core in transfer, and Writing Intensive will be completed at Columbia College Chicago.
